February is American Heart Month

We can protect our heart and our overall health by eating a well-balanced diet full of fruits and vegetables, whole grains, low-fat dairy products, nuts and legumes, lean source of protein and reducing the amount of sugar we consume.

Valentine’s day doesn’t need to be surrounded around giving and receiving sugary treats. Here are some healthy and fun alternatives to candy for Valentine’s day.

- Heart shaped cheese served with crackers
- Fresh or frozen fruit- get creative! Use a heart shaped cookie cutter to create fun shapes
- Dried fruit: small box of raisins, banana or apple chips
- Berry smoothie made with strawberries & low-fat milk
- Heart shaped peanut butter & jelly sandwiches
- Heart shaped whole grain pancakes
- Bubbles
- Pencils or other stationary items
- Go traditional! Create handmade cards with kind messages

Congratulations!
