

Over the past few weeks, the nature and character of Lutheran Services Florida has come into question.

So, who is LSF? Simply put, to many of Florida's most vulnerable citizens, we are the Lutherans.

Over 40 years ago, Lutherans with hearts for Jesus and hands to serve joined together to care for vulnerable children, teens, and families throughout the state. Today, we are a faith-based, nationally accredited, nonprofit organization whose services impact 1 in 50 Floridians each year. While our ministry has grown, our mission remains the same: Bringing God's healing, hope, and help to people in need, in the name of Jesus Christ.

LSF practices good stewardship with the gifts we receive from churches, individual donors and foundations. We are also a trusted partner of government with numerous competitively procured grants and contracts from various State and Federal agencies because of our accountability and excellence.

With funding from the Florida Department of Children and Family, the Office for Refugee Resettlement and the Office of Head Start we are proud to provide:

- Children and youth in need through foster care and adoption services
- Youth shelters for struggling youth, ages 10-17
- Counseling services
- Head Start programs
- Healthy Start services for pregnant women and newborn children
- Behavioral health and substance use disorder services
- Guardianship services for adults in need without family
- And so much more

Over the past few weeks, the nature and character of Lutheran Services Florida has come into question.

So, who is LSF? Simply put, to many of Florida's most vulnerable citizens, we are the Lutherans.

Over 40 years ago, Lutherans with hearts for Jesus and hands to serve joined together to care for vulnerable children, teens, and families throughout the state. Today, we are a faith-based, nationally accredited, nonprofit organization whose services impact 1 in 50 Floridians each year. While our ministry has grown, our mission remains the same: Bringing God's healing, hope, and help to people in need, in the name of Jesus Christ.

LSF practices good stewardship with the gifts we receive from churches, individual donors and foundations. We are also a trusted partner of government with numerous competitively procured grants and contracts from various State and Federal agencies because of our accountability and excellence.

With funding from the Florida Department of Children and Family, the Office for Refugee Resettlement and the Office of Head Start we are proud to provide:

- Children and youth in need through foster care and adoption services
- Youth shelters for struggling youth, ages 10-17
- Counseling services
- Head Start programs
- Healthy Start services for pregnant women and newborn children
- Behavioral health and substance use disorder services
- Guardianship services for adults in need without family
- And so much more

In Matthew 25, Jesus taught us to serve the hungry, welcome the stranger, clothe the poor and give generously to those in need.

Last year, we provided over 3.6 million meals to children in our early childhood education and helped over 4,000 at-risk children through foster care. We have helped Florida communities welcome thousands of legal immigrants and refugees, and we have helped these newcomers get settled into their safe homes. We opened our doors to more than 500 youth into our shelters. We brought support to more than 900,000 individuals dealing with substance abuse and mental health issues while we were a voice for more than 300 adults who needed advocacy service to protect them from exploitation. But, we did not do this alone. Together, with the Church, its pastors and parishioners, we serve Jesus by serving the least of these.

“The King will reply, ‘Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me.’” - Matthew 2:40

We are the Lutherans and we believe that Jesus meant what he said. We are grateful to embody His mission as an extension of His church. We thank you for your trust in us to be the hands and feet of Jesus.

For more information on who we are and what we do, we invite you to view our website at www.LSFNET.org.

In Matthew 25, Jesus taught us to serve the hungry, welcome the stranger, clothe the poor and give generously to those in need.

Last year, we provided over 3.6 million meals to children in our early childhood education and helped over 4,000 at-risk children through foster care. We have helped Florida communities welcome thousands of legal immigrants and refugees, and we have helped these newcomers get settled into their safe homes. We opened our doors to more than 500 youth into our shelters. We brought support to more than 900,000 individuals dealing with substance abuse and mental health issues while we were a voice for more than 300 adults who needed advocacy service to protect them from exploitation. But, we did not do this alone. Together, with the Church, its pastors and parishioners, we serve Jesus by serving the least of these.

“The King will reply, ‘Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me.’” - Matthew 2:40

We are the Lutherans and we believe that Jesus meant what he said. We are grateful to embody His mission as an extension of His church. We thank you for your trust in us to be the hands and feet of Jesus.

For more information on who we are and what we do, we invite you to view our website at www.LSFNET.org.